“Recognizing the service of these wartime veterans is the right thing to do and it is long overdue. The families of those who were killed or wounded during these wartime acts should take pride in knowing that we recognize their sacrifice and service. Moreover, we are proud to welcome any of the six million living veterans from the previously unrecognized periods into our organization and call them ‘Legionnaires.’”

-American Legion National Commander Brett P. Reistad following the July 30 signing of the Let Everyone Get Involved in Opportunities for National Service Act, also known as the LEGION Act, which expands membership eligibility in the organization to all who served honorably since Dec. 7, 1941
